Hi Rob--

I had earmarked the use of that name in connection with a potential project associated with the activities of an educational foundation with which I am involved. I had planned to donate the name to that Foundation if and when the particular project took form. However, our Board is in the early stages of identifying and developing projects and programs. So I would consider selling the name if your organization or the Athens-Meigs Educational Service Center wanted to submit to me an offer for consideration.

I am curious--how are you related to the Athens-Meigs Educational Service Center? Are you acting as their representative? I notice that your domain name is www.digitalschoolnetwork.com. Are you a contracted vendor or a school representative?

It may also interest you to know that one of my Internet-related businesses is selling domain names (www.mynameclaim.com) and extremely high quality hosting services (www.eulahost.com) with easy-to-use and inexpensive add-on features specifically designed for the educational market. Our 24-7 technical support is one of the best in the industry. I would be glad to show you working samples of some of our products if you are interested and quote you bulk pricing based on the number of users you anticipate. It is even likely, if the domain and/or hosting services purchased are intended for educational use, that I can add FREE unlimited school-use license site-building software very similar to the very expensive Macromedia Dreamweaver (with a one-click switchable interface between WYSIWYG and .html, pre-loaded javascripts that enable dynamic content, and the capacity to script in .php, mysql, etc.), but much, much easier to use for the beginning or intermediate user.

At EuLaHost, we use only Linux servers, so our hosting and design capabilities are extremely flexible, enabling everything from the very sophisticated site designed by the professional webmaster comfortable with scripting, to simple but no less fully functional sites designed and maintained by students, teachers and administrators.

Thanks for contacting me. Let me know if you or the Athens-Meigs Educational Service Center would like to make an offer for the outright purchase of www.athensmeigsesc.com and I will consider whether I am willing to part with the domain name.

Also, please let me know if you are interested in purchasing other .com, .net. or .org names, hosting services, email accounts, onlinefilefolders (a great product for schools!), blog accounts, photofilers, podcasts, etc., etc. I would be happy to work with you and/or your client(s) in this connection.

Respectfully,

Hope
